CRWC Hosts Grassroots Social Media Expert

ALEXANDRIA, VA –

The Commonwealth Republican Women’s Club (CRWC) dinner meeting in March featured guest speaker Dena Espenscheid, a grassroots activist. Her presentation discussed the opportunities and pitfalls of social media, and showed CRWC members how to use Twitter to help political candidates.

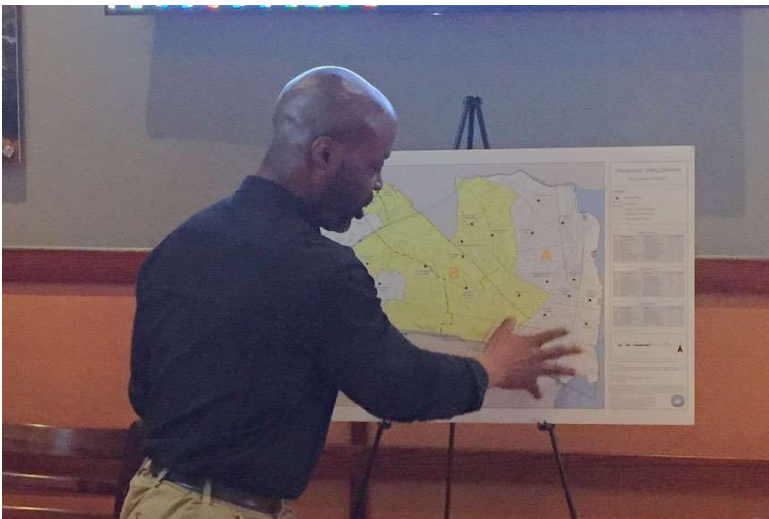

Michael Clinkscale, recent GOP candidate for Alexandria City Council, attended the meeting and said he has filed as a candidate for the Virginia House of Delegates. His campaign centers around personal liberty, responsibility, and empowerment. He also supports school choice and reduced taxes. Former Vice Mayor Bill Cleveland gave an impassioned endorsement of Michael Clinkscale while criticizing Virginia’s top Democrat elected officials for recent racial scandals.

CRWC is the Alexandria chapter of the National Federation of Republican Women. Men may join as associate members. More information is available at www.alexandriacrwc.org .
