Message from the President

And away we go! It's full speed ahead into election season and we're in the thick of it. Thank you to members who gathered at Sharon Annear's home for politicking the old fashioned way. We heard from three Republican candidates for office: Former Vice Mayor Bill Cleveland running for Alexandria Sheriff; Chris Gregerson running for House of Delegates (in the open seat) and Matt Mueda running against Delegate Brian Moran.

Each candidate spoke to us from the heart about why he is devoting so much of his time, effort and resources to run for office. To help them to victory, the Commonwealth Republican Women presented each of the three candidates with a $500 contribution. We followed the speech with addressing envelopes, stuffing invitations and sorting them for the post office—old-fashioned politicking evening!

Our next meeting will be a potluck at Jane Ring's home on Thursday, September 22 at 7:00 pm. (note the earlier time). We hope to be joined by a member of the City of Alexandria staff to brief us on safety in our community.

And let's not forget the CRWC fundraising opportunities ahead. Former HHS Secretary and Wisconsin Governor Tommy Thompson is joining us on Monday, October 10 from 6:30-8:30 pm at Fran and Gant Redmon's home. Secretary Thompson is a speaker much in demand and we are delighted to be having him join us. We're also selling White House Christmas ornaments—it's never too early to be stocking that gift closet.

Please note for your calendars that our October meeting (in addition to the fundraiser) is Thursday, October 27 and November meeting will be on the third Thursday, November 17, not the fourth since it is Thanksgiving.

As I write this column, several members of CRWC are in Nashville for the NFRW Biennial Convention: Karen Connair, Margaret Penn, Jean Klinge and Gail Ledwig. We look forward to their report on the convention at our next meeting. New officers are being elected; we're getting back the use of the word "club" in our name and we're adding a new membership category for student members to encourage early affiliation with the largest Republican women's organization in the world.

See you at the September 22 meeting,

Allison Cryor DiNardo

White House Ornaments For Sale

Each year, as one of CRWC's major fundraisers, our club members sell White House Ornaments. So far sales have been very brisk. To date 190 ornaments have been either sold or reserved. Our second shipment has arrived so we currently have 160 on hand. Our costs have remained stable so we are able to continue charging $18.00 as we did last year.

This year's ornament honors the 20th President, James A. Garfield. The design is comprised of a round ceramic stone featuring a Victorian period illustration of the South Front of the White House surrounded by a highly decorative wreath made of gold-plated brass. The colors and intricate motifs used to decorate the wreath are derived from the decor and collection of Lawnfield, the president's home in Mentor, Ohio. President Garfield's monogram, "JAG" featured at the bottom center portion of the wreath, is reproduced from his inaugural ball decorations. I think you'll be very pleased with the ornament as well as the design of the box.

Ornaments will be available at our September meeting, or you can contact Sharon Annear at 703-751-9130, email: gypsySLA@verizon.net or Becky Davies at 703-370-6890, email: jbdavies@erols.com.
