Commonwealth Republican Women's Club General Membership Meeting

August 22, 2013

7:30 Social; 7:45 Program

Alexandria Police
Department

3600 Wheeler Avenue

1 block from Duke opposite N. Quaker

"How Virginia goes, so goes the nation in 2016" when we expect Hillary to run for president. Who gets elected in Virginia in November 2013 is seen as a bellwether for 2016. CRWC, therefore, has a big responsibility in electing Republicans this November. This meeting's focus is on campaigning for the three Republican candidates for office: Ken Cuccinelli, E. B. Jackson and Mark Obershain. Their representatives will discuss the campaign and tell us how we can help.

A Celebration: Alexandria's Birthday Party was a festive event with fireworks at Founders Park. CRWC members Debi Deimlinger, Jean Marie Antone, Maria Ciarrocchi, Shari Bolouri, Greg Korologos, Karen Kilday, Gail Ledwig, and Linda Greenberg as well as Bill Cleveland and Tom Fulton were there to give out literature about the Republican candidates. Also attending was a special guest, Mark Obenshain, candidate for Virginia Lt. Governor, accompanied by Frank Fannon, past council member.

Campaign Management School

Opportunity knocks: Learn the ABCs of campaigning for or helping in a campaign for political office. Saturday, September 28, 2013, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at NOVA.
